Missionaries in BOLIVIA South America

January-March 2025

Dear Prayer Partners and Supporters,

We hope that you have all had a great start to 2025! For our family, it has been busy and full of travel. We are thankful to have had some time to enjoy our first winter in 4 years, and we were so excited to see snow several times in January and February. Our boys were amazed when we got almost a foot of snow last month. We thoroughly enjoyed sledding, snowball fights and making snowmen.

God has blessed us with many opportunities to share about the ministry in Bolivia this winter. We have traveled to churches in Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia so far this year. We have been in several mission conferences, taught children's Sunday School classes, and I have had the opportunity to speak in several school chapels over the past several weeks. We are so thankful for the many churches who have invested in getting the gospel to Bolivia, and we love getting to share about all that God is doing there.

In early April, both Shera and I will be making a quick trip to Bolivia to start getting set up for our return later this summer. Please pray that the trip goes smoothly and that we can get everything secured with our housing in the 4 days we will be in the country. With the upcoming elections, things there have been unstable politically as well as economically. Bolivia is currently in the middle of a fuel crisis and lines to get a tank of gas can be hours long. This issue will likely not be solved anytime soon and is only one of the many issues that Bolivia is facing. We are praying for wisdom on the timing of our return. Elections are due to happen in August, and after the violence and unrest that happened last election cycle, we are waiting to see how things shape up before we book our return tickets.

Your servants for Christ's sake,
