Dear Praying Friends,

At the end of April we celebrated día del niño, or children's day. We had 74 people come to church in Pozo de Gamboa! We had pizza, piñatas, cake, candy, jello and ice cream. The children were very happy! In Zacatecas we had 27 children come for that day! Many of these children are very poor, so something special like this does not happen very often.

On one Saturday out soul winning we were at the hospital. We are not allowed to enter into the buildings to try and witness to the people. We have to stay outside and win souls. On that day Jorge was with us and someone asked him to help them hand out presents to the children. I gave him about 25 John and Romans along with our Gospel tracts. He dressed up as a clown and was able to go into the rooms and give the parents and children a portion of the Bible! He was very happy to be able to help in getting the Word of God out.

Leonor and her husband Manuel have started to go out soul winning with us. They had many doubts about going as Zacatecas is not the safest of places to be. They really enjoyed trying to witness and seeing us lead others to the Lord. Please pray for our people to be actively involved in God's command to go. So many are afraid of what will people say about them.

A few weeks ago Max got baptized! He is an eight year old grandson of a family that comes to church with us. His family was very happy to see him obey the Lord in this command. Since our last letter Lidia and I were able to win 18 people to Christ! Our church people led another 41 to the Lord Jesus Christ! We go out to the hospital to win souls and we also go to many different sections of town getting the Gospel out to the lost. Some are searching and others not so much. But to all that are willing to hear we give them the Gospel. We also had 15 first time visitors come to our church services in Zacatecas and in Pozo!

Thank you for your continued prayers and support!

Yours for souls,
Mike and Lidia Lemma
