Dear Praying Friends,

We hope that you all enjoyed your Thanksgiving with your families. At Thanksgiving time, we went to see our son Stephen and his wife Mari and our daughter Abigail and her husband Raymundo AND our two little granddaughters Adela and Aurora. We really enjoyed the time together with them! We also want to wish you a merry Christmas!

We had asked you to pray for America a teenage girl that goes to church with us in Pozo. She has returned after missing many weeks of church. We ask you to pray for Bertha who is one of our soul winners. She is almost blind and she is losing what little sight that she has. Please pray for her. Recently, a teenage boy named Luis was killed by the cartels. His grandmother and a few aunts and uncles come to church with us. Luis did come to church a few times and did get saved but his family is hurting. Also, Rosa, who has been coming to church with us for many years is really battling to be able to walk. She is 77 and her health is not that good. Please remember these in prayer.

We took a group of 25 of our people to a Bible conference in Jerez where Pastor Jose preaches. This is one of our churches that we started more than 20 years ago. While there Lidia went to talk to a first-time visitor there named Brandon. He heard the Gospel and got saved! Lidia also spoke to two nieces of Sister Chuy, named Amy and Alondra. Amy came for the first time and Alondra has come a few times before. They both got saved!

Since our last prayer letter, Lidia and I led 20 souls to the Lord and our church people led another 37 to Christ! There were two first time visitors that came to church with us. They both heard the Gospel and got saved! We thank you for your prayers and continued support. May God bless you!

Yours for souls,
Mike and Lidia Lemma
