Back on the field of Peru

Dear Faithful Prayer Warriors,

We hope your new year brings you closer to the Lord and to family. Debbie's sister, Clea, stayed with us a couple of weeks and we celebrated the New Year together. Clea has Alzheimers, even so we enjoyed our short time together before our return to Peru.

My body did not reject the stint, and all is well with the my heart and the "Widow Maker" artery. On January 12th I had my last heart Doctor visit and leg vein oblations. We arrived back in Peru on January 19th. Debbie's surgery on her finger has healed up nicely. I may need cataract surgery in December.

GRANDKIDS

Please pray for:

- a. Our granddaughter, Audrey Vilchez, who joined the Army January 12th and is now enduring Boot Camp in South Carolina.
- b. Our next to the youngest grandchild, Arya Carranza, last week accepted Christ as her personal Saviour. Her mother (our daughter Shay) led her to the Lord in their home. Arya turns 10 years old in February, and will need lots of prayer as well.
- c. Our oldest grandchild, Blake Vilchez, needs to find a job in his field of microbiology.

ENCOURAGEMENT

A few weeks back the Lord knew I needed a little encouragement. Don't we all from time to time? Out of the blue I got a phone call while stateside from Spain. Claudia greeted me in her familiar voice. Years ago, she accepted Christ in Peru. Her life truly changed, She and her teenage daughter, Barbara, both followed the Lord in Baptism and began attending church and discipleship classes faithfully. Maybe a couple of years later they both began to hit and miss then before long we lost track of the family. I chalked it up as my converts (& not the Lord's). But she informed me that she strayed for a while but could not keep living that way with Christ in her heart. Now happily married. She informed me that all our effort and prayers in Peru had not been in vain. Then she thanked me for taking time to talk to her when coming down from drugs, and showing her she could be forgiven her sin and be changed. Claudia's mom, Judy, got saved 1st and now has cancer that has spread throughout her body. Prayers Please!

Just think what we can do together,
